

Rezdy and Website Travel announce partnership connecting 2000+ tour and activity operators with 600+ travel agents

Released 14 December 2016

Rezdy and Website Travel announce their partnership. Connecting over 2,000 of Rezdy's tour and activity suppliers with 600+ agents using Website Travel. The partnership will facilitate real-time availability sharing between the two platforms, giving travel agents immediate booking confirmations without picking up the phone.

“As an industry platform connecting agents and operators to do business every day, Website Travel are thrilled to welcome Rezdy as one of our connecting partners. By working collectively with Rezdy we will connect up to 2000 additional operators to our growing agent network of 600+ agents across Australasia and Europe, by offering live inventory and booking confirmations. No doubt this connection will pave the way for a solid partnership that will benefit all of our shared customers” - Selina Kelly (General Manager Website Travel).

Simon Lenoir, Rezdy's CEO added “An integration of this scale hasn't been seen in the industry yet. Connecting our suppliers to the 600+ agents from Website Travel is a massive jump forward for the industry. At Rezdy, we strongly believe that connecting as many agents to as many suppliers as possible takes the industry forward. Website Travel shares that vision, which makes a partnership a logical step in connecting the tours and activities industry.”

“Rezdy have raised the bar again as we continue to set the industry standard in tours and activities. With this exciting partnership with Website Travel, our suppliers can now capture even more business from one of the biggest network of online and offline travel professional across ANZ. It's another win for the tours and activities sector as we welcome Website Travel to the Rezdy family.” - Kevin Lu, Director of Distribution, Rezdy

Matt McCourt, Founding Director of Website Travel, says; At Website Travel we are very proud of our ongoing commitment as an industry platform. This integration between Website Travel and Rezdy is a huge step forward for our industry. It's exciting to think of how many customers and companies will benefit and have their businesses streamlined even more. We look forward to business in 2017.
